Brief order for Confession and Forgiveness

P Blessed by the Holy Trinity, +one God, who creates, redeems, and sustains us and all of creation.

C Amen

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Faithful God,

C have mercy on us. We confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We turn from your loving embrace and go our own ways. We pass judgment on one another before examining ourselves. We place our own needs before those of our neighbors. We keep your gift of salvation to ourselves. Make us humble, cast away our transgressions, and turn us again to life in you through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

P God hears the cries of all who call out in need, and through his death and resurrection, Christ has made us his own. Hear the truth that God proclaims:

Your sins are forgiven in the name of + Jesus Christ. Led by the Holy Spirit, live in freedom and newness to do God's work in the world.

C Amen

P The Holy Gospel according to Matthew the 21st Chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Matthew 21:23-32

After driving the moneychangers out of the temple (21:12), Jesus begins teaching there. His authority is questioned by the religious leaders, who are supposed to be in charge of the temple.

When [Jesus] entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?" And they argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' But if we say, 'Of human origin,' we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet." So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

"What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' He answered, 'I will not'; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I go, sir'; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ

All People That on Earth Do Dwell

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'All People That on Earth Do Dwell'. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are arranged in five numbered lines, with the first line starting at the beginning of the first system and the fifth line ending at the end of the third system. The lyrics are: 1 All peo - ple that on earth do dwell, sing to the; 2 Know that the Lord is God in - deed; with - out our; 3 Oh, en - ter then his gates with praise; ap - proach with; 4 For why? The Lord our God is good: his mer - cy; 5 To Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost, the God whom Lord with cheer - ful voice; him serve with mirth, his

Apostles' Creed

P Let's join to proclaim our faith in the Apostles' Creed:

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

Prayers of the Church

Lord's Prayer

P Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

Benediction

P And now as you go on your way, may the Lord go with you. May he go before you to show you the way, behind you to encourage you, beside you to be your friend, above you to watch over you, and within you to give you peace. Go today celebrating in the name of the Father, the + Son, and the Holy Spirit, and all God's children said...

C Amen.

Sharing the Peace and Sending

P Go in peace, remember the poor, and serve the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Message from St. Paul's Finance Committee

With COVID-19 upon us, we are dealing with unprecedented amounts of uncertainty. News is fast developing and every day brings a new change to our lives like we never imagined.

We are writing this letter to remind you that St. Paul's still needs your ongoing financial support. For those who have had their employment altered or eliminated, our prayers and support are with you. We are writing this letter for those who can still provide, as a friendly reminder that your weekly offerings continue to be a very important source of income to support not only St. Paul's ongoing expenses, but our ministry activities. Please prayerfully send your gifts via mail to the church office, or it is easy to set up on-line giving use the following link. If you need any assistance please give the office a call.

<https://stpaulseggertsville.org/online-giving/>

We sincerely hope you and your loved ones are staying safe and healthy. Together in Christ, we are strong, and if we all do our part, we'll get through these difficult times. Don't forget to laugh every now and then, and go wash your hands!

Parkside For Social Justice – definition and resource for September 2020

Institutionalized racism: The systematic distribution of resources, power, and opportunity in our society to the benefit of people who are white and exclusion of people of color.

Though institutions such as slavery, Native American displacement, internment camps, and segregation no longer exist, their effects still live on. We see this when we look at the differences in statistics for minorities.

The COVID-19 death rate per 100,000 people by race is over 60% for people who are Black compared to under 30% for people who are White.

The median net worth for White families is $146,984 whereas for Black families it's $3,557.

This divide has only worsened in the last 3 decades. In 1983 the average net worth of White families was $110,160 whereas for Black families it was $7,323.

As of 2016 $15.5% of White families have 0 or negative net worth compared to 37% of Black families.

Despite Blacks and Latinos making up 44.1% of the U.S. population they make up less than 3% of fortune 500 CEO.

Black youth represent 15% of all U.S. children, but made up 35% of juvenile arrests in 2016.

Black college graduates face significantly more student loan debt ($22,303) than White graduates ($17,753) an associate's degree

These are only a small sampling of the troubling statistics out there on racial disparity when it comes to economics, health, education, and criminal justice. As people of faith, we are called not to overlook injustice. Looking at these statistics it is clear that in the USA, we are not all on an equal playing field. Without significant policy changes to address institutional racism, these disparities will only continue to grow. This is evidenced by the widening gap between the net worth of White families vs. Black families. I encourage all of Parkside to familiarize themselves with these statistics and learn more about policy changes that can fight against these injustices.

Resource: So You Want to Talk About Race, By: Ijeoma Oluo

This book serves as great starting place to learn how to discuss sensitive topics surrounding race. Talking about these issues can be intimidating, as we are often afraid that we will say the wrong thing and offend someone. Unfortunately, our fear of messing up can stop us (or at least it can stop me) from speaking up even when it is the right thing to do. In the end, our silence is almost always worse than trying and accidentally saying the wrong thing. This book gives permission for mistakes, while providing tips and tricks to avoid them. It is a must read for anyone wanting to go a little deeper into these conversations, instead of letting the moment pass you by.

Have a suggested resource or question about this initiative? Contact Pastor Jeremiah or Alison Smith alisonmsmith07@gmail.com. All are encouraged to sign the ELCA's Anti-Racism Pledge found here: <https://www.elca.org/racialjusticepledge>.
