Confession and Forgiveness

P In the name of the Father, and of the ✠ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Baptized into Christ, let us confess our sin. Merciful God,

C you free us to love others, but we neglect our neighbors and follow our own way. You lead us by the Spirit of joy and peace, but we turn away from the abundant life you offer. You surround us with patience, kindness, and generosity, but we grow weary in doing what is right. In your mercy, forgive us. Do not give up on us. Heal us, break our bonds, and show us the path of life in you. Amen.

P You belong to Christ Jesus and you are God's children through faith. In the cross of ✠ Christ, and through the power of the Holy Spirit, your sins are forgiven. Clothed with Christ, you are a new creation.

C Amen.

First Reading: Galatians 5:1, 13-25

For Paul, the freedom Christ gives is not permission to do whatever we want. It is the invitation to be what we could not be otherwise. The power and guidance of Christ's Holy Spirit produce a different kind of life, one marked by the fruit of this Holy Spirit.

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

C Thanks be to God.

Psalm 16 (read responsively)

I have set the LORD always before me. (Ps. 16:8)

A Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; I have said to the LORD, “You are my Lord, my good above all other.”

C All my delight is in the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.

A But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied.

C I will not pour out drink offerings to such gods, never take their names upon my lips.

A O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; it is you who uphold my lot.

C My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; indeed, I have a rich inheritance. A I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me night after night.

C I have set the LORD always before me; because God is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

A My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope.

C For you will not abandon me to the grave, nor let your holy one see the pit.

A You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

A This is the Word of the Lord

C Thanks be to God.

P The Holy Gospel according to Luke the 9th Chapter.
C Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Luke 9:51-62

Jesus is unwavering in his commitment to his mission in Jerusalem and will not be swayed by pettiness. In a series of striking cases in point, he calls his disciples to a similar single-mindedness.

When the days drew near for [Jesus] to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, “Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?” But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village.

As they were going along the road, someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.” And Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” To another he said, “Follow me.” But he said, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.” But Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.” Another said, “I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.” Jesus said to him, “No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.
C Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

Here I Am, Lord

1 "I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my peo - ple cry.
2 "I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my peo - ple's pain.
3 "I, the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame.

All who dwell in dark and sin my hand will save.
I have wept for love of them. They turn a - way.
I will set a feast for them. My hand will save.

I, who made the stars of night, I will make their dark-ness bright.
I will break their hearts of stone, give them hearts for love a - lone.
Fin-est bread I will pro-vide till their hearts be sat - is - fied.

Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?"
I will speak my word to them. Whom shall I send?"
I will give my life to them. Whom shall I send?"

Refrain

Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord? I have heard you call-ing in the night. I will go, Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your peo - ple in my heart.

Apostle's Creed

P With the whole church, let us confess our faith together:

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

Prayers of the Church

P Drawn into the embrace of the holy Trinity, we lift our prayers for the wholeness of the church, the world, and all creation. (Please be seated.)

Guide your church, O God. Anoint us for service and make us messengers of your peace. Emboldened by the witness of Christians throughout history, send us to proclaim your reign come near. God of grace,

C hear our prayer.

P Protect this world, O God. Watch over fields and fruit trees, foxes and birds, the pleasant land beneath us and the sun and moon above. Keep us mindful of the rich inheritance you have given us in the natural world. God of grace,

We pray especially for the people on our Prayer Lists and Prayer Chain, and those we name before you now, either silently or aloud. Give all your fullness of joy. God of grace,

C hear our prayer.

Blessing of Communion Kits and our Visitation Ministers

- C Compassionate God, as Jesus called his disciples to follow him, bless those who go forth to share your word and sacrament with those who are sick and homebound. May these gifts be signs of our love and prayers, that through the sharing of the body and blood of Christ, all may know your grace and healing revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dialogue and Preface

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give God thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right and proper that we should at all times and in all places, offer thanks and praise to you, O Lord, holy Father, through Christ our Lord; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with the Church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and speak their unending hymn:

Sanctus (spoken)

C Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Words of Institution

P In the night in which he was handed over, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Lord's Prayer

P Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

Holy Communion at St. Paul's: celebrated every time we gather, and is open to all. Please approach by the center aisle, receive the bread and the wine, and return to your seat via the side aisle. Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available. Simply request it from the Assisting Minister holding the wine. Children are welcome! Those who receive elsewhere may receive here. Children who do not yet receive may come for a blessing. If you have difficulty walking, communion will be brought to you at your seat.

UPDATE ON THE CONGREGATIONAL MEETING ON JUNE 22, 2025

At the meeting Sunday morning, both Motions passed. St. Paul's will move in the weeks and months ahead to (a) look to sell the Amherst Campus property and (b) begin an expansion project for increased space to battle food insecurity and build relationships in the Eggertsville neighborhood.

We are so thankful for all those who came out the meeting and listening sessions. We know that there is great excitement and deep grief surrounding these moves. We've heard your concerns and the Council and staff will be keeping what we've learned in mind as we move forward.

While there will be some work beginning over the summer on the Columbarium plans and design phase of the new project, most of the work and more updates will come in the fall. Until then, everything at the Amherst Campus will remain as is and we look forward to continuing to worship together on Saturday nights.

Here are a couple architectural renderings of the potential new space that we forgot to share at the meeting on Sunday. They are draft images and a Building Team will soon be established to firm up plans that will help St. Paul's fulfill the mission to reach beyond ourselves with the good news of Jesus Christ.

The congregation will be meeting in the future again to (a) approve the final price and purchaser of the Amherst Campus property and (b) approve the final plans for the Eggertsville expansion.

Why on earth would we ever celebrate Christmas only ONCE a year? The good news that God has become incarnate (tangibly shown up!) in our world is too good to only celebrate mid-winter.

So, let's do it again in July!

And with Christmas at St. Paul's comes our Angel Tree, where so many of you pick up gift tags to help bless so many families in need. You help them see God showing up!

This summer, we'll do it again with locker ladders and food gift cards. The social work staff at the Amherst Family Support Center have started to raise donations of locker ladders for Amherst students with significant financial barriers who may have special needs and/or struggle organizing their schedule and needed class supplies. When students are unorganized, take the wrong books from their lockers or are delayed to class, their learning is impacted negatively. Locker ladders have historically helped students to better organize their supplies and books and set them up for success in school. You can take a gift tag for one of these lockers and purchase locally or buy on the Amazon link-https://www.amazon.com/dp/B001977S8U?ref=fed_asin_title&th=1 to have delivered straight to St. Paul's. You can also grab a gift card for $25 for Tops to help out Tiger's Den families.

Either way, bring them all back or have them delivered by July 6th when we will celebrate Christmas in July. And as always, thanks for continuing to show our local families in need that God continues to show up!
