Welcome to St. Paul's Lutheran Church Amherst Campus Pentecost Weekend May 23, 2026 Musician: Adam Schmidt

Gathering

P People of God we gather today, to worship, to celebrate ministry well-done, and to honor and say goodbye to this place. In 1947 the mission congregation of Amherst Lutheran Church began. In 2022, the congregation of Amherst Lutheran Church made the decision to continue doing ministry in a new way, through the closing of their congregation and the intentional joining of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Eggertsville. For three years these congregations have merged and missionaries have mingled. New ministries have begun, and existing ministries at both campuses have been strengthened. Today marks the end of an era. An era that is celebrated even as we grieve leaving this place. We remember and give thanks for the ways in which God has blessed the ministry of this place and community. Let us lift our voices in praise and song to the One who alone will continue to care for and sustain us in this life and in the next.

Confession

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✚ one God, whose compassion endures forever.

C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin to God. Compassionate God,

C we confess to you all our sins. Our burden is heavy, and we cannot free ourselves. In your mercy, call us back to you. Your yoke is easy and your burden is light. Restore us to dwell in your peace. In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

P Jesus says, “Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.” In the name of God, Father, ✠ Son, and Holy Spirit, your sins are forgiven. Rest in God’s love.

C Amen.

Apostolic Greeting

P The grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

P O God, on this day you open the hearts of your faithful people by sending into us your Holy Spirit. Direct us by the light of that Spirit, that we may have a right judgment in all things and rejoice at all times in your peace, through Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

First Reading: Acts 2:1-21

Pentecost was a Jewish harvest festival that marked the fiftieth day after Passover. Luke portrays the Holy Spirit being poured out upon the disciples before the gathered and astonished people assembled in Jerusalem for the festival. Filled with the Spirit, the disciples were able to witness to the power of Christ's resurrection.

When the day of Pentecost had come, [the apostles] were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Fellow Jews and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

- A This is the Word of the Lord
- C Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

Paul is helping the Corinthians understand the relationship between our God-given unity and Spirit-created diversity. The Spirit creates the unity of faith and gives all Christians diverse gifts for the common benefit of all. We need one another's diverse spiritual gifts because the same Spirit has given them to each person for the common good.

No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts but the same Spirit, and there are varieties of services but the same Lord, and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of powerful deeds, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

A This is the Word of the Lord

C Thanks be to God.

P The Holy Gospel according to John the 20th Chapter.
C Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

The risen Jesus appears to his disciples, offering them a benediction, a commission, and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.
C Praise to you, O Christ.

Prayers of Remembrance and Thanksgiving

P Let us bring before the Lord our prayers of thanksgiving for our life together as the Amherst Lutheran Campus and for the blessings God has brought us through this holy place of worship.

At the pews: Almighty God, these pews have gathered us as your Church and filled our hearts with your love through our songs and our praises. You heard our confessions and forgave our sins. You wiped our tears and celebrated with us. May these pews now hold the people of St. Paul's Blossom in your care as they have held us.

C We give our thanks and praise to you, O Lord, for all these things.

P At the record books: Almighty God, these books hold a record of the life of this congregation and people dedicated to your service and your church. They contain memories and milestones that continue to matter. We give thanks for the men and women who founded Amherst Lutheran Church, and all the leaders of this place who have used their talents and skills to build up a community of faith. May you continue to nurture us to build up your church.

C We give our thanks and praise to you, O Lord, for all these things.

P At the center: Almighty God, through your people, this building has been a blessing for the whole community for over 76 years. People have gathered for worship, for weddings, for funerals, and for fellowship, for recovery, for book discussion, for support, for prayer, and for learning. While this structure will no longer be a worship space, may it continue to be a blessing, and may it continue to inspire devotion to God who makes all things possible.

C We give our thanks and praise to you, O Lord, for all these things.

P At the band: Almighty God, these instruments, these hymnals and these voices have lifted our worship and praise to you. We give thanks for all those who have led our music ministry, for what has been and for what remains. May your Spirit continue to inspire us and open our ears to hear the music you are still bringing to life among us.

C We give our thanks and praise to you, O Lord, for all these things.

P At the Baptismal Font. Almighty God, at this font, you have received our children and our loved ones and made them one with your Son, Jesus Christ, and with us, the Body of Christ. We praise and thank you for the holy waters that have flowed from this font into each of us and out into the world. May all those baptized continue to be witnesses of your love and saving grace throughout the world.

C We give our thanks and praise to you, O Lord, for all these things.

P At the pulpit. Almighty God, from this pulpit, we have heard your mighty Word that breathed life into the earth and all of its inhabitants. By the gift your incarnate Word in Jesus, you brought good news of life and salvation for all. You have lived among us through the gospel and the biblical stories of your people of faith. Through your Word of preaching, you have called us. Through your Word of teaching, you have taught us. Through your Word of law and grace, you have guided us on our way. May your Word continue to echo in our lives.

C We give our thanks and praise to you, O Lord, for all these things.

P At the altar. Almighty God, through manna on a wilderness journey and loaves of bread multiplied on a hillside, you have fed people who needed sustenance for their bodies and souls. You have strengthened us for our mission and for our daily lives and sent us out to share Christ's love with all the world. May the grace and favor you have shown us through the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be shared with all who are hungry. May all who have been fed here at this table be reunited through your heavenly meal.

C We give our thanks and praise to you, O Lord, for all these things.

P For all these things and for so many more, we give you our heartfelt thanks, almighty God. And we ask that you bless us as we go from this place and from this fellowship. Yet in our parting, we declare our faith in you, using the words that have been taught us:

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

The Peace

P Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid." The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C And also with you. All share the Lord's peace with one another.

P Let us pray,

C Merciful God, accept the fruits of our labor, gathered here today and through our online giving. You have set a table before us, nourish us with the body and blood of Jesus, that goodness and mercy may follow us and bless the world you love. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

Dialogue and Preface

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give God thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right and proper that we should at all times and in all places, offer thanks and praise to you, O Lord, holy Father, through Christ our Lord; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with the Church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and speak their unending hymn:

Sanctus (spoken)

C Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Words of Institution

P In the night in which he was handed over, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Lord's Prayer

P Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

Holy Communion at St. Paul's: celebrated every time we gather, and is open to all. Please approach by the center aisle, receive the bread and the wine, and return to your seat via the side aisle. Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available. Simply request it from the Assisting Minister holding the wine. Children are welcome! Those who receive elsewhere may receive here. Children who do not yet receive may come for a blessing. If you have difficulty walking, communion will be brought to you at your seat.

Communion Blessing

P The body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace.

C Amen.

Prayer After Communion

P Gracious God, at your table you strengthen us for service wherever you send us. As we leave this place that has been a home for worship and mission, help us to follow your Holy Spirit into new places, and to continue to our life and ministry together as your people. In the name of Jesus,

C Amen.

Declaration of Leave-Taking

P With thanks to God for the work accomplished in this place, this building is now vacated for the purposes of the Amherst Campus of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. May the witnesses of the people who have ministered here in the name of Jesus Christ continue to live on as they leave this place.

C Amen.

Benediction

P And now as you go on your way, may the Lord go with you. May he go before you to show you the way, behind you to encourage you, beside you to be your friend, above you to watch over you, and within you to give you peace. Go today celebrating in the name of the Father, the + Son, and the Holy Spirit, and all God's children said...

C Amen
